The first system of music for Variation 3 consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a series of eighth notes, followed by a double bar line and then a triplet of eighth notes. The bass staff features a similar rhythmic pattern with eighth notes and triplets. A slur labeled 'legato' spans across the first triplet in the treble staff.

The second system continues the musical theme with more triplet patterns in both the treble and bass staves. The treble staff has a series of eighth-note triplets, while the bass staff has a more complex rhythmic accompaniment with eighth notes and triplets.

The third system shows continuous triplet figures in both staves. The treble staff has a steady stream of eighth-note triplets, and the bass staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth notes and triplets.

Var. 4

The first system of Variation 4 features a change in the bass line, which now includes a prominent eighth-note triplet pattern. The treble staff continues with eighth-note patterns and triplets.

The second system of Variation 4 introduces more complex rhythmic textures, with the bass staff featuring a dense pattern of eighth-note triplets and the treble staff having a more melodic line with some triplets.

The third system of Variation 4 concludes the variation with sustained patterns in both staves. The bass staff continues with eighth-note triplets, and the treble staff has a more melodic line with some triplets.

The image displays a page of musical notation for piano, consisting of six systems. Each system contains a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#), and the time signature is 3/4. The first system includes a trill (tr) in the treble staff and triplet markings (3) in the bass staff. A section labeled "Var. 5" begins in the second measure of the first system and continues through the end of the page. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, such as sixteenth-note runs and triplet figures, and dynamic markings like accents and slurs. The piece concludes with a final chord in the bass staff.
